

CHAPTER V.

1806.

Ulcuse of the Emperor of B[^]-D[^]."
defeated - Triumphs of the French arm.es

e,

=rC1o, ^ ^ ^ ^ Altona-Fauche-

BorelandtheComtedeGimel - - *

Images

CHAPTEE

VI. 1806.

-Alarm of the city of Hamburg- The French at Bergdorff-Favorable orders by Bernadotte- Extortions in Prussia - False indorsements — Exactions • Dutch -Napoleon's concern for his wounded troops - Duroc 8 mission : King of Prussia-Rejection of the Emperor's demands -• My fe#otiatric Hamburg— Displeasure of the King of Sweden-M. Netzel ana M.. Wetter

CHAPTEE

VIIIV 1806.

This Continental system— General indignation excited by it —
Sale of licenses 1 French Government — Custom-house system at Hamburg— My letter to th< peror — Cause of the rupture with Russia — Bernadotte's visit to me. — Tria court-martial for the purchase of a sugar-loaf — Davoust an cl the captain porteur" ^Influence of the Continental system on Napoleon's fall . . .

CHAPTEE

VIII 1806 —

1807.

N~ew system of war— Winter quarters— The Emperor's proclamation — N"ece86 marching to meet the Russians — Distress in the Hanse Towns — Order for cloaks — Seizure of Russian corn and timber— Murat's entrance into W;
— Re-establishment of Poland— Duroc's accident — M. de Talleyrand's cai stopped by the mud— Napoleon's power of rousing the spirit of hiH troops • mode of dictating— The Duke of Mecklenburg-Schwerin — His vIHts to Har;
— The Duke of Weimar— His letter and present — Journey of the HCeret
IPrince of Denmark to Paris — Butler, the English spy— Travelling clcrka — jBonaparte and the Berlin decree —Creation of the Kingdom of Saxony —\
s/tion of Germany for the King of Saxony — The Emperor's uncertainty re
ing Poland — Fetes and reviews at Warsaw — The French Government *
ISmperor's headquarters — Ministerial portfolios sent to Warsaw
— Military
arations during the month of January— Difference of our situation durin campaigns of Vienna and Prussia — News received and sent — Conduct c
Cabinet of Austria similar to that, of the Cabinet of Berlin — Battle of "By Unjust accusation against Bernadotte — Death of General d'Hautpoult — Te .
clianted by the Russians — Gardanne's mission to Persia . . .
. . . .